

CHRISTMAS IN ENGLAND

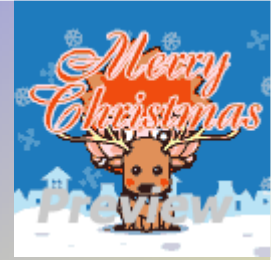

*Merry
Christmas*

Why Do English Celebrate Christmas?

It is a holiday observed generally on December 25 to commemorate the birth of Jesus, the central figure of Christianity. Although nominally a Christian holiday, Christmas is also widely celebrated by many non-Christians but everyone enjoys this magical holiday especially the children.

For English people Christmas begins on 25 December and is called Christmas Day.

In the morning children find presents from Santa in the stockings hanging at the fireplace. All members of the family have the Christmas dinner together. the 26th of December is still apart of Christmas because we call it BOXING DAY where families have a meal like on Christmas day

Christmas Day

For Christmas dinner people prepare mainly roast turkey, potatoes, Brussels sprouts and Christmas pudding and every child that can will open all of there presents!
